Note:
You do not need to be a pilot or military veteran to become a member of the Alamo Liaison Squadron (ALS). Applicants must be at least 18 years old. The Alamo Liaison Squadron (ALS) is a self-supporting, privately financed, all volunteer organization. The organization is dedicated to building, restoring, maintaining, demonstrating and flying the "Liaison Aircraft" that have been used in the service of America in time of both war and peace. It is not-for-profit, tax exempt (501 (c) 3) and incorporated under the laws of the state of Texas for charitable and educational purposes. No state or federal funds are received. Membership in the Alamo Liaison Squadron is approved by the Board of Directors and is on an annual basis with an original one time initiation fee of $200.00 for all flying members and annual dues of $100.00 per year for all members, payable in one lump sum or in semi-annual installments.

My membership fee and one time inititation fee (if applicable) are included.

I certify that the statements made by me in the above application are true to the best of my knowledge and are made in good faith. I understand that the antique aircraft that I shall become acquainted with and exposed to in the Alamo Liaison Squadron are very old and also very rare. I further understand and agree to comply with the rules, regulations and bylaws of the Alamo Liaison Squadron, a copy of which has been furnished to me.
